

LIVINGSTON

Mrs. Sarah B. Hall is very sick at present. She is another sufferer of the flu.—The family of J. W. Hughes, who have been confined to their rooms on account of the flu, are improving.—Fin Davis, of Lowell, is visiting his brother, L. H. Davis.—O. D. Bryant, of Mt. Vernon, has resigned as freight agent here and O. D. Ponder has taken his place.—Died: Mrs. James Mahaffey, wife of Uncle James Mahaffey, who died about a year ago. She died the 25th and was buried at the family burying ground at the Falls Cemetery, on Rockcastle River.—Mrs. Robert McClure is very low with pneumonia and not expected to live. She first had flu and later went into pneumonia.—Mrs. Fred Owens and children, of Cincinnati, have moved back to Livingston—Ollie Browning has moved his family here from London and is working third trick at Sinks.—Some of the soldier boys have come back and more are coming. We learn that several thousand will come from England and France in the near future. They did all they could to destroy Kaiserism. Can we put our hand on our heart and say with a clear conscience that we did too.—The flu situation is getting better now. No new cases and all that have it are gradually improving, and it is to be hoped that it will be blotted out.—Mike Fannon was at Mt. Vernon, Sunday, to be with Mrs. Fannon, who is 'hello girl at that place.—D. B. Rambo was in Louisville latter part of last week.—Earl Rice was here Sunday, enroute to Corbin, where he has a position with the U. S. Navy. Sam's Navy, was here Sunday, but did not get here in time to see his wife who died of the flu and was buried a few days before his arrival.—Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Stewart, of Cincinnati, who have been visiting relatives here for the past week, left on 22, Wednesday, for Nashville.—Charley Kelley, son of Smith Kelley, who was with the colors, was brought here a few days ago and buried near town in the family burying ground. Another victim of the flu.—Logan Overbay, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Overbay, died Friday of pneumonia, which was caused by a severe case of the flu. He was buried on Sand Hill, Saturday. He was thirty years old and leaves a wife and four children, father and mother, several brothers and sisters to mourn his loss.—Born: to the wife of David Smith, a fine boy on the 25th; also a fine girl to the wife of C. L. Black, on same date.—Mrs. D. H. Owens has resigned as assistant postmaster and moved to Lebanon Junction.—Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Ward and son, Glen, have returned to their home at Hazard, Ky., after a few days visit with relatives here.—Mrs. N. H. Oliver, who has had a severe attack of flu, is able to leave her room.—Bill Odell's family are better after all being confined to their room with flu.—C. M. Griffin, of Falmouth, Ky., were here latter part of last week.—Lee Mullins, who is interested in coal mining, near Corbin, was with his family Sunday.—Judge Dees has resigned as postmaster and Miss Flora Pennington has been appointed and will take charge January first.—Jonnie Bullock, who had the flu about a month ago and developed pneumonia, is slowly improving.—Mrs. Robert Griffin, who moved to London, Ky., about two months ago, has moved back to our town.—W. A. White, moving his family to White, has purchased a farm near that good little town.—Watch inspector S. C. Franklin was here latter part of last week, and later we learned through a friend the most important part of his business here. A week or so ago he came down and purchased a pair of shoes and after wearing them for a day or two, found they were both for the same foot. He then came back and swapped them and got a No. 6 lace shoe and a 7 button shoe. Returning to Mt. Vernon he discovered his mistake and his last trip was to get them straightened out. The merchant said the reason he could not fit him was that his feet were neither rights or lefts.

Our old friend, the Brothead Scribe, was anxious to know how we came out in our United War Work campaign. He seems to think that we fell behind for he said we always make such a howl every time we have gone "over the top", that every one knew it. We consider this something to howl about and if our friend was as eager to see his town go over as we are ours, he would make a great noise too. But in all the drives how many times would he get to toot his horn? Livingston we think has gone over every time. Can our friend say as much? In this last campaign, we learn that we have citizens here who count their wealth by the thousands, who did not give a penny. We wish to say to them that shrouds do not have pockets and the man that has to work every day to live donated liberally to the cause. Some find a great difference in buying bonds and helping the soldier boys back home.

CECIL HAYES At Camp Greene

Camp Greene, Charlotte, N. C.
Nov. 23, 1918.
Editor Mt. Vernon Signal,
Mt. Vernon, Ky.
Dear Sir:—

As it was always of great interest to me to read the letters from the boys in camp I thought I would "spring one" on my friends in Old Rockcastle. Since I have been in Camp Greene I have been almost continually engaged in some kind of office work. The first seven weeks that I was here I was in the Personnel Department of the army, from that I was sent to the Motor Branch of O. M. C. I was there on special duty and not permanently assigned, and after about a month I was ordered back to my original company by the camp commander, Col. Macomb.

I was in my company about four days when I received a transfer to the Camp Headquarters, at which place I am now stationed. I am working in the Officers' Morale Department now. The most of the work I do is on the machine. I am a living army life line. Of course there are some hardships for us to undergo, but nothing to compare with that through which the boys "over there" have had to undergo, so we are taking it easy, knowing that we are fighting (or have been fighting) for the greatest cause which mortal man ever bled and died. Vis: A "World-wide Democracy" and we have been crowned with a victory that will put these United States in a position where all the rest of the Nations of the earth will look up and respect her as they have never done before. (Continued on last page.)

Results of State-Wide Prohibition In Alabama, Arizona, Colorado, Georgia, Idaho, Indiana, Kansas, Maine, Michigan, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, Tennessee, West Virginia OHIO, The Pivotal State, HAS VOTED DRY

LEGISLATORS were elected in 35 States November 5th, 1918. Action upon the Ratification of the National Prohibition Amendment to the Constitution will be taken in the early part of their sessions, which begin in 1919. Fourteen States have already ratified the amendment, and should 22 of the 35 State Legislatures just elected take similar action—National Prohibition will become effective in 1920.

"Prohibition Facts and Figures" has just been compiled. It is a book of facts containing many statements on Prohibition by some of the World's most noted authorities. Whether you are in favor of or against National Prohibition, you owe it to yourself to become acquainted with the real facts of this question—which is now engaging the attention of Legislative bodies throughout the Nation.

Complete, Accurate and Dependable Information—No Loyal American can doubt the statements of the following:

H. M. Leland, President Lincoln Motor Car Co.
Jos. Boyer, President Burroughs Adding Machine Co.
